

Request for Access to Personal Information

Under the Data Protection Act 1998 you have the right to enquire of any organisation about whether they hold personal information about you and, unless an exemption applies, to receive a copy of that information.

A data subject is the individual about whom the personal data relates. If you are applying for information about yourself, then you are the data subject. If you are acting on behalf of the data subject, please also complete Section D of this form.

To enable Malvern Hills District Council to deal promptly with requests for personal information, and to satisfy legal requirements placed upon the Council to ensure the identity of data subjects, please enclose with this form

- Suitable proof of identity relating to the data subject (and relating to yourself if you are not the data subject). Acceptable proofs of identity include a copy of driving licence, birth certificate, 2 recent utility bills or recent correspondence from Malvern Hills District Council
- A cheque for £10.00 made payable to Malvern Hills District Council. (We are entitled under the Data Protection Act to charge for each application)

The more specific you can be with your request about the information you require, the easier it should be for us to locate the information for you.

If you need any help completing this form, please ask a member of our staff or contact the Officer responsible for Data Protection at the address shown in section C..

SECTION B

As stated above, it will help your application if you can be specific with your request. Please state in your own words what information you require, including details of contact with Malvern Hills District Council or reason why you believe we have personal information about the data subject in our files.

If the data subject is, or has previously been an employee of Malvern Hills District Council, a payroll number, dates of employment and/or details of Directorate/Department will be a useful guide to help us search for any information held.

The information I require concerns:

SECTION C

I understand that it may be necessary for Malvern Hills District Council to obtain more detailed information in order to be satisfied about my identity and to be able to locate and collate the correct personal data and that the 40 day period in which Malvern Hills District Council must respond will not commence until this is satisfied. I confirm that I am the data subject/acting on behalf of the data subject and that the information given on this form and any attachments therein are accurate and true.
